

Richard Pollett

16 February 1986 - 27 September 2011

Richard Pollett will long be remembered as a violinist and musician of extraordinary depth, and for his intelligence, warmth and humility. Richard's life was tragically cut short at the age of 25 in a bicycle accident, but the legacy of his many solo performances with orchestras and in particular his winning performance in the Symphony Australia 2010 Young Performers Awards will remain. Richard touched many through his playing and his person, and was an inspiration to all who knew and heard him.

Born in Adelaide, Richard studied at the Queensland Conservatorium of Music Griffith University and at The University of Queensland. He went on to study at the Conservatorio della Svizzera Italiana Lugano and returned to study at the Australian National Academy of Music in 2010. Richard had a close association with the Australian Youth Orchestra and toured Europe with the orchestra.

As a soloist Richard appeared with the major Australian orchestras as well as the Orchestra of Lugano in Switzerland. In 2011 he was studying at the Buchmann-Mehta School of Music in Tel Aviv and had just done a tour of South America with their orchestra under Zubin Mehta, which was a great thrill for him.

The Richard Pollett Memorial Award has been established by Richard's family and close friends in association with the Australian Youth Orchestra to honour his memory. Award(s) will be made annually to provide support and encouragement to young violinists who display outstanding personal and musical attributes.
